

STUFF, in Commerce, a general name for all kinds of fabrics of gold, silver, silk, wool, hair, cotton, or thread, manufactured on the loom ; of which number are velvets, brocades, mohair, sattins, taffeties, cloths, ferges, &c.

STUFF is particularly used for certain kinds of light woollen stuffs, used principally for linings, and women's wear ; as linseys, rateens, &c.