

Cambric, (kām'brīk.) n. A kind of thin, white, and fine fabric made of flax or linen; — supposed to be first manufactured at Cambray, whence the name is derived. — A fabric made in imitation of linen cambric.
"And cambric handkerchiefs reward the song." — Gay.