

CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION.

	PAGES
Brief Description of the Fair.....	1-3

PART I.

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS.

Exhibitions and the Lessons they Teach—British Manufacturers and International Exhibitions—American and Canadian Manufacturers—Indications of Growth in the American Weaving Industries—French Silk Exhibits—Various European Countries and their Exhibits—Woven Specimens of the Argentine Republic—Japanese Textiles—Women's Exhibits.....	7-17
--	------

PART II.

WOOLLENS AND WORSTEDS.

Countries which Exhibited All-wool Goods — Great Britain's Woollens—Scotch Tartans—West of England Firms—Yorkshire Manufacturers—Carpets—United States Woollen Textures—Heavy Woollens—Piece Dye Goods—Woollen Fancies—Worsted Trouserings—Shawls and Dress Materials.....	21-47
--	-------

PART III.

COTTONS AND LINENS.

British Cotton Exhibits—Towels—Waistcoatings—Quiltings—Printed Fabrics—Cretonnes and Velveteens—Linens—French Cottons and Linens	51-72
--	-------

iv. WOVEN FABRICS AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

PAGES

PART IV.

SILK FABRICS.

French Silks—Novel Character of French Designs— Plushes and Velvets—German Silk Manufactures— Silks of Japan—Silk Exhibits of the United States— Styles of American Silk Patterns—Designs in which Cord or Rep Weaves occur—Shaded Patterns— Figured Stripes—Summary.....	75—115
--	--------

APPENDIX.

The World's Fair: An Object-lesson to British Manu- facturers	117—121
--	---------

