

Farmers, Dairymen & Country Merchants' Guide

OR,
PRICES CURRENT OF PRODUCE IN NEW YORK.

For the Week ending April 4th, 1863.

Published by JOSIAH CARPENTER, Commission Merchant,
No. 32 JAY STREET,

Near Erie and H. R. Railroad Freight Depots and Hudson River Boats, New York.

THIS PAPER is compiled with great care and expense, especially for the benefit of my patrons; it is issued every Saturday and sent free every week to all my shippers. It contains correct and reliable quotations, up to the time of publication, of the different kinds of Merchandise sold by me in commission, with the price attached to each that may be in this market.

From these prices deduct the freight and commission, which will give the net amount the shipper should receive for his goods. At the bottom of each article will be found the maximum charge for selling that article, and the necessary information for packing the same.

Those shipping should put their name and address on, or in each package, and send an invoice with full particulars and instructions by mail, to my office, and delays. Mark my name and address plainly and neatly on each package.

Marking Plates and Cards furnished when required for this purpose free of charge. Send periodic orders of goods that will be filled by freight, or otherwise, by the most convenient and cheapest route.

Two thirds of the market value will be advanced on the immediate receipt of the goods if desired. No returns will be made to my shippers, properly after receipt of goods. Returns will be sent in a check by mail unless otherwise ordered.
