

During the Great Production Movement every one of the army and people in Yen-an took part in spinning and weaving.