

Creative Artists Agency (CAA) is coming to the UA Department of Computer Science on Thursday, February 4 to host an information session about the agency, and talk to students about IT-specific internship and full-time opportunities. They will be in Gould-Simpson 906 starting at 6:30pm, and will host a student reception in the 9th Floor Atrium for interested students beginning at 6:00pm.

CAA is the world's leading entertainment and sports agency, with offices in Los Angeles, New York, Nashville, London, and Beijing. Founded in 1975, CAA represents many of the most successful professionals working in film, television, music, theatre, video games, sports and digital content, and provides a range of strategic marketing and consulting services to corporate clients.

The attached flyer contains additional information.

The Information Technology department supports CAA by developing and managing custom applications, providing social intelligence, security, and program management which allow the agency to attract and retain the best talent in entertainment and sports. We are offering internships in programming, web design, security, compliance, program management and social analytics.
